

The image is a composite of two promotional materials. The top portion is a yellow banner for the "1st Conference on Physics in Culture" organized by the Balkan Solid State Physics Institute, held in Thessaloniki, Greece, from October 20-23, 1998. It includes a logo of a castle and a circular seal of the institute. The bottom portion is a blue poster for "BALKANIAD FOR THE ENVIRONMENT", a symposium organized by the Balkan Physical Union and Balkan Environmental Research Development Institute. The poster features a background of a cloudy sky and provides details about the event's dates, location, and contact information.
